Family Smartphone Agreement

1. I understand that I do not own this phone, but my parents are awesomely giving me the privilege of using it.
2. This phone is free to use, BUT overcharges on my/the family's data plan will need to be paid somehow (extra chores/babysitting money).
3. I will not exceed texting or calling limits. I will not make long-distance phone calls unless they are approved by mom or dad.
4. I will look after my phone! I understand that it is expensive and valuable, and if it is broken or lost, I will pay to replace it, or go without it.
5. My phone will always be left to charge at the family charging station (i.e., central spot in the house), and will not be used during family time (i.e., dinner time, or family outings)
6. I will not use my phone after bedtime.
7. I will use this phone appropriately by:
  1. Using inappropriate language
  2. Not sending hurtful texts/messages. If there's a disagreement, it's best to talk face to face
  3. Not sending or requesting inappropriate images
  4. Sharing my passwords with my awesome parents
  5. Respecting the parental controls on this phone

By signing this agreement, I understand the above rules.
